

1 Tom has 12 books.

He shares them equally between two shelves.

How many books are there on each shelf?

2 Sasha thinks of a number.

Half of Sasha's number is 8

What is one-quarter of Sasha's number?

3

On Tuesday, Sunita drives 15 km more than she did on Monday.

On Wednesday, Sunita drives 15 km more than she did on Tuesday.

Over the three days, Sunita drove 255 km in total.

How far did she drive on Tuesday?

4

Here are three number cards.

- $A + C = B$

- $B = 2,000$

- C is 250 more than A

Work out the value of A and C.